

Expression of Interest (EOI) and Application for Accreditation Committee Membership

To avoid any issues when submitting your form, please open and complete in Adobe Acrobat

The APC is seeking to fill two positions on the Accreditation Committee (AC) in 2019. This document outlines the application requirements, provides supporting information and the closing date for applications, as well as providing a template for application (as per 'application requirements' item 1 below).

Appointments to the AC are made according to the APC Accreditation Committee By-Law (By-Law) along with consideration of the expertise, experience and skills of current and applying members, and the gender and cultural diversity of the Committee.

Committee position

Which position are you submitting this EOI for?

Applications for positions 4 and 5 only (from the By-Law) are being accepted in 2019.

- 4 One practising pharmacist with experience in hospital pharmacy and clinical education
- 5 One practising pharmacist with experience in community pharmacy and the supervision of intern pharmacists

Applicant's declaration of Conflicts of Interest

It is anticipated that applicants may have an association with one or more of the accredited degree or intern training programs in Australia or New Zealand. This does not preclude an individual from being a member of the AC as APC has an ongoing process to manage these conflicts.

Tick this box to declare that you believe you have no conflicts of interest with the overarching work of the Accreditation Committee. Please see the APC Conflict of Interest Policy.

Declared possible conflicts with one (or more) pharmacy degree or intern training program providers in Australia or New Zealand:

APPLICATION PART B Applicant's Statement in Support

Please submit a brief statement (250 words or fewer) outlining:

- why you are interested in joining the APC Accreditation Committee,
- how your knowledge and skills align with the requirements of the position you are applying for and
- how your knowledge and skills will contribute to the work of the Committee.

(NOTE: statements should be informed by the support information as referenced below)

APPLICATION PART C
Applicant's Current Curriculum Vitae (CV)

Please submit your current (brief) CV with your application as a separate attachment.
